

Frozen Warehouse of Maxicana (Chicken franchise)

The Mexicana is a chicken franchise company that has been in business for 30 years.

It's safer and more efficient than ever.

This is because the illuminance increases by more than two times

after the replacement with Stallone Flood Light, and it is possible to light immediately.

In addition, power consumption is reduced by one-third and lighting replacement cycles are increased by more than five times, significantly reducing maintenance costs.
